have made Catholic Central a stronghold of education

Catholic Central, an outstanding secondary school, can point with pride to fifty years of marked progress.

In 1906, Bishop Henry Joseph Richter and the Reverend Pastors of the city, desiring to fulfill their duty to provide education for the whole man—body and soul—proceeded to establish a Catholic Central High School. Within that school year the institution was affiliated with the University of Michigan, and in June, 1907, graduated twenty-nine young men and women. In June, 1956, the fiftieth graduating class will receive diplomas. Several will also receive honors and scholarships to higher institutions of learning, many will be welcomed into various business enterprises.

Handicaps of opposition and finance that accompanied the inception and development of this project were overcome by the hard labor and self-dedication of parents, pastors, and religious to this noble cause. The loyalty of each succeeding graduating class to its Alma Mater has strengthened the position of Catholic Central and proven the increasing wrath of its existence. But above all, and in all, and through all has been and is the abiding presence of the Holy Spirit guiding and blessing the workers and the work.

In Memoriam

In the midst of the celebrations of our anniversary year, we stop to remember the loss of one of our teachers, Sister Mary Isabel O. P., who passed away in June, 1955. Her Lord found her ready and took her to His heavenly home, the home for which she had striven. Requiescat in pace.

We regret that space does not permit us to picture all of the members of our faculty in this section; however we feel that here and elsewhere in our book a fair representation is shown.

We, the editors of the 1956 Spires, speaking in the name of our class, take this opportunity to express our gratitude to you, our teachers. For fifty years you and your predecessors have labored unceasingly to endow the youth of this great school with the heritage of Christian culture; you have aimed to provide such educational experiences as aided by divine grace, have tended to develop the Christian ideas, attitudes and habits demanded for Christlike living in American society.

Our four years at Catholic Central have been enlightening and enjoyable. We may not have realized at all times the importance of your service to us, but as we grow older and are out in the world for a few years your timely hints and warnings shall be recognized for their worth.

Having heard God's command to "teach all peoples" you have obeyed it zealously. We pray that guided by the hand of Divine Providence you will be able to carry on your work for many more years. God bless all of you.

have increased the awareness of Christian standards in the world's activities

The aim of Christian education is "to cooperate with divine grace in forming Christ in those regenerated by Baptism." Pope Pius XI.

Fame, wealth, lofty positions in life are secondary to the formation of "the true and finished man of character," the man who does not fear to behave as Christ would have him behave in his relations to God, society, and nature. This pattern of life is not at variance with our national heritage. It is a part of it. Christlike living is the very bed-rock of American society.

To set up an educational system that would provide every Catholic youth in Grand Rapids with the experiences needed to help him live, think, and act in a Christlike way, and to mature into a Christlike citizen was the primary aim of those noble and fearless founders of Catholic Central fifty years ago. The efforts were not in vain. Christlike living men and women, the product of Catholic Central, hold key positions today in business, careers, politics, labor, professions, and religious life.

We, the Class of 1956, the largest graduating class in the history of Catholic Central, pledge ourselves, by God's grace, to live these principles righteously, and thus do our part to better the world.

BLESSINGS OVER FIFTY YEARS

TE

have brought better facilities and a broader field of instruction

When Bishop Richter established Catholic Central he gave the Catholic educators of the United States a proof of what unification and centralization could accomplish.

There were good parish high schools in the city, but their powers were limited. United, they would benefit by State recognition, and have more space, bigger facilities, and better staffs at less cost. However, it took a period of years to bring this dream to realization. There is still much to be desired.

State recognition was effected the first year and has never been lost. The four-year highly academic curriculum met the needs of college entrants; a three-year commercial course qualified others for clerical positions. Gradually physical education, athletics, band, orchestra and other educational activities were added.

Centralization could not be realized until 1921, when the Girls' School was given the old St. Joseph Seminary, across from the Boys' School. Early in the 1940's overpopulation again became a problem and necessitated designating St. Adalbert's as Catholic Central for Freshman and Sophomore boys and girls residing on the West Side. It was not until 1953, with the erection of the new addition, that coeducation was made possible at East Catholic.

Today the school is composed of a gymnasium and three buildings, comprising well equipped laboratories, classrooms, two libraries, cafeterias, offices and chapel.

Catholic Central has come a long way since 1906. Much of the success is due to the influence and ability of Right Reverend Monsignor W. J. Murphy, Principal, and his strong corps of co-workers.

Another day, some more notes . . . Father Najdowski, M. Zemites, M. Snyder, N. Parcher, and W. Kochonek.

"Does everyone agree with his answer?" inquires Sister Evangeline of E. Zobro, P. Walsh, T. Wurm, J. Walker, S. Spinski, and F. Stanasjak.

Father McDuffee's Religion Class listens with a critical ear to a classmate's report on the Holy Land . . . J. Kleibusch, T. Centilli, D. Kubiak, P. Host, F. Berles, J. Connell, K. Reilly, and K. Bielecki.

Religion

Treated as a social science, Religion classes are conducted daily and full credit is received on the completion of a school year. The four year course comprises a study of the life of Christ, the liturgy, moral and spiritual values, ethics, and apologetics.

Father Yager gives helpful hints to R. Elliot, G. Lesinski, and J. Bolt on their duty toward their country (Marines).

A scenic portrayal of "The Three Kings" appears in Sister Otilla's room with E. Urbanski, T. Sommers, C. Moore, and V. Stornant.

Sister Dionysius discusses the importance of the Feast of the Epiphany with G. Stercula, T. Kaminski, L. Bushey, and K. Emaus.

J. Korczewski explains the Triplet in Senior English to C. Lambert, B. Pawlowski, and M. Erhardt.

Sister Clare Marie points out characteristics of drama to R. Szubinski, E. Kawalczyk, N. Stralis, and E. Lapciuk.

Sister Michael explains a lesson in grammar to A. Zamaira, R. Sarakin and A. Bryan, sophomores.

English

A four year English course is still a "must" at C. C. Exceptions are rare. Practice and drill in the fundamentals of spelling, grammar, and writing; studies, discussions, and interpretations of important writers and their works; debates, outside reading and reports; essays, term papers, creative work in prose and poetry and a study of American and English literature are the principal activities that engage the student of this subject.

Freshman G. Gahn stresses the importance of good grammar to L. Barello and D. Bashoven.

English I. The principles of composition are taught to D. Albertson, M. Palega, B. Klocko, M. Syrek, F. Berles, J. Daminiak, R. Zdunek by Sister Agila.

"Silas Marner" is the subject of discussion with Sister Zita and her students, M. Raskiewicz, M. Steffes, B. Witte, and L. Zuker.

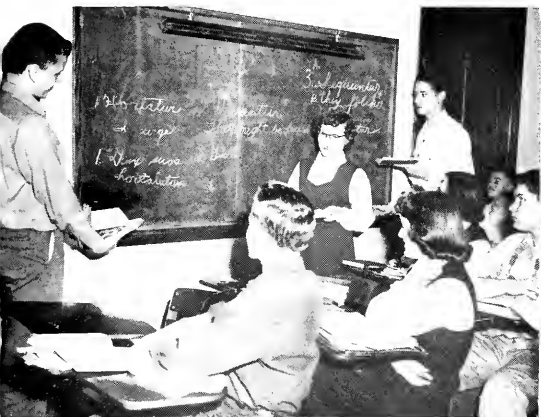

J. Barta writes the opening lines of Cicero's First Oration while other members of third and fourth year Latin look on.

A Spanish class conducted by Sister Agnes Therese learns about Spain by listening to an entertaining record.

G. Black, J. Blake, and B. Lapre display their ability to translate sentences in a Latin II class.

Sister Leo Marie pronounces the new words for her French students. F. Malek, F. Hoover, A. Ancona, M. Holland, R. Keenan, D. Duchene, D. Konkel, B. Deuling, J. Mointz.

Sister Benedetta assists J. Zimmer in her translation, while J. Zebor, S. Young, P. Zych, and W. Withey follow in their text books.

Languages

C. C. offers three language courses; Latin, French, and Spanish. Most students are satisfied with a two-year course; nevertheless some few perfect themselves by longer study.

Aside from becoming more or less proficient in a language, students appreciate other benefits derived from such study; namely, an increased vocabulary, better knowledge of meanings of words, and an acquaintance with customs of people of other nations and times.

Mrs. Robert Anderson explains to her students, C. Didion, J. Fitzpatrick, N. Drungilos, G. Helzer, D. Duemler, and E. Fanning, the translation of brief forms.

Miss Konle gives helpful hints to B. Voltz, while B. Yentz, N. Stover, and S. Robach work industriously.

In Sister Casimir's class, lettering becomes an art with C. Rodawski, M. Withey, and B. Bove.

Fred Sauer explains to R. Konieczny, T. Deschaine, R. Bram, and J. Kline the fundamentals of isometrics.

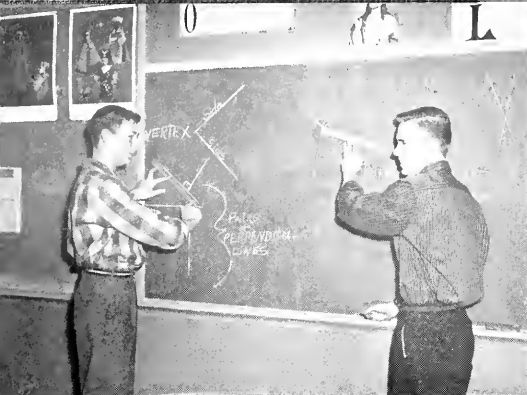

Commercial

This is one of the popular and practical departments at C.C. Typing, stenography, and book-keeping classes are offered to sophomores, juniors, and seniors.

For the graduate who is not looking forward to college these studies are adequate preparation for initiation into the business world. For the future collegiate they are also an asset. The skills acquired here are at his disposal for personal use or to fill part time jobs for the extra income so much needed to meet daily expenses.

The fourth edition of the Blue and White is reviewed by students in Journalism Class, M. Baggiano, T. Barber, S. Patterson, L. Barcheski, K. Quinn, and J. Burns.

"It looks perpendicular to me," says H. Pattack to T. McCarthy in a senior mathematics class.

"Those are four equal segments?" asks Sr. Leanilla of S. Sichterman, H. Milanawski.

"Is H_2O really water?" inquire P. Kapec, M. Bart, E. Ratawski, T. Ryan of Sr. Alphanse Mary.

Mathematics and Science

Knowledge of mathematics is a practical necessity in every day life. Therefore, in preparation for the future, Catholic Central offers courses in algebra, geometry, trigonometry, and High School arithmetic. Besides providing mathematical knowledge, these subjects tend to produce a keen mind capable of clear thinking.

Scientific knowledge is offered in general science, biology and physiology, physics and chemistry. Well-equipped laboratories are provided for experimental purposes.

Biology students, M. Kab, C. Ohren, M. Stuart, M. Sawa are engrossed in the study of cells.

A replica of the human ear is taken apart by M. Sullivan, P. Dzierwa, D. Kazdrey, C. Wybranawski, J. Stapleton under the direction of Sr. Christina.

"Conada, here we come," says B. Mead to A. Burke in their concentrated study of Canada in Geography class.

In a Civics debate, F. Lauria, M. Sowa, J. Kuzma, M. L. Junewick, T. Przybysz, S. Nanzer, P. Keller, and R. Sakalaski give their views on the honor system.

Social Studies

World history, American history, Michigan history, civics, and sociology are open doors to all at Catholic Central who strive to learn about conditions of the world, past and present; and about its people and their problems.

The Senior year is divided between sociology, the study of people and their problems, and civics, the study of government. A half credit is given for each subject. Civics is a State requirement for graduation.

In Sister Judith's History Class, J. Rauch, assisted by P. Patrick and J. Rupprecht, points out the free states in their study of the Civil War.

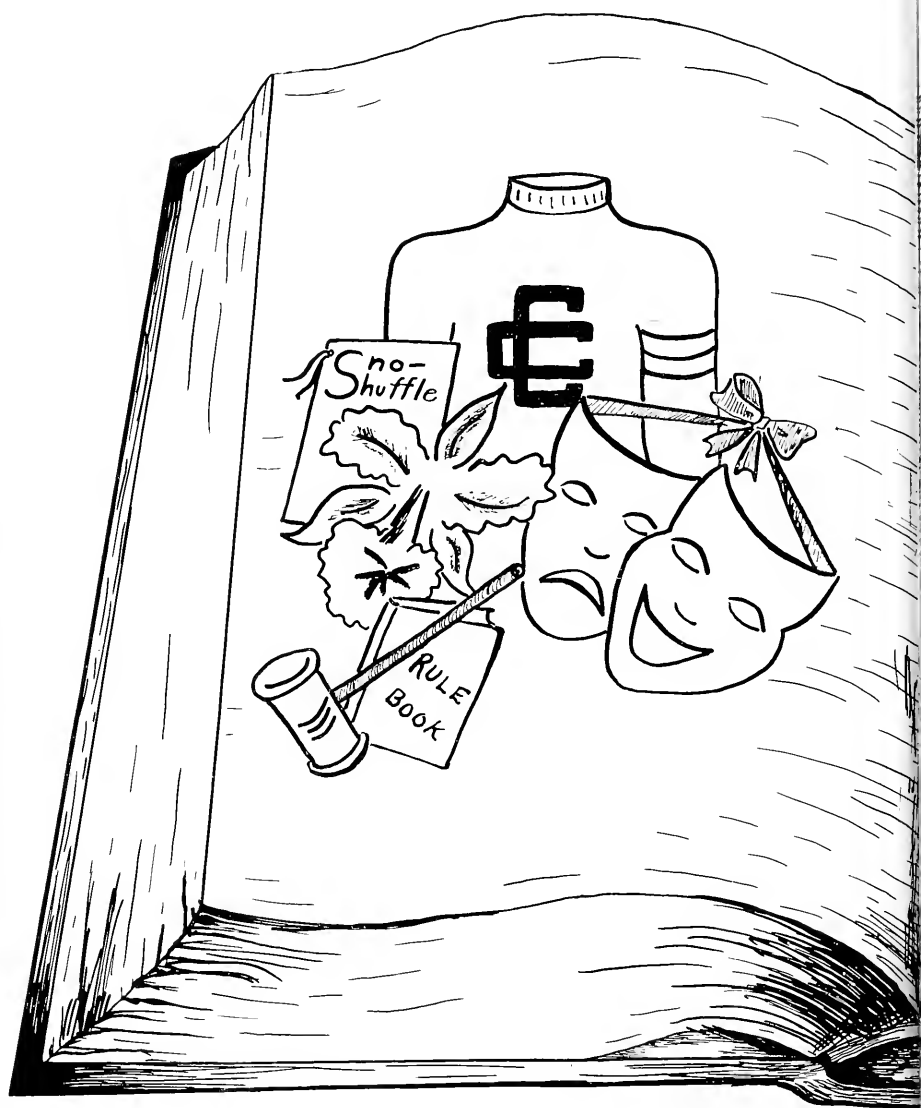

Celebrating February 12, D. Hipp points out from the pictures that Abraham Lincoln fulfilled his duties toward God, Home, and Country.

Sister Edwin explains to her Civics students, M. Meyers, S. Baldwin, J. Camling, and M. Costello, the Economic Status of the United States.

have favored including the recreational need of youth in the educational program

When one thinks back over his days at Catholic Central he recalls first of all the formal education he received, and secondly the practical application thereof when he participated in extracurricular activities.

In 1906 there were few opportunities for students' recreations. The administration, realizing this important need, began organizing a program of properly conducted diversions. Finances were meager, trained instructors for low salaries were scarce. Progress was slow at first, and for the most part left to the students. As enrollments increased, activities were added. Today our full scale high ranking recreational program boasts of some twenty clubs, service and religious, and an excellent sports' program. A few formal proms and several informal dances are on the regular schedule; pep rallies, assemblies, and after-game get-togethers are frequent.

In all these events the purpose has been and always will be to teach the members how to conduct themselves in a Christlike fashion in the American form of society. Participation in these activities has developed leadership, responsibility, good sportmanship, and social poise. Most of all it has emphasized the importance of cooperation and harmony; two aspects necessary for the continuation of society.

The annual Christmas Party of the Catholic Central Seniors held in the cafeteria on December 14, turned out to be an enjoyable evening for all. The fine entertainment was concluded by the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus, portrayed by Joe Schmitz and Bernice Pawloski. The evening was highlighted by the portrayal of the beautiful nativity scene, presented by the Marian and Glee Clubs.

Responsible for this seasonal event were co-chairmen Claudette Vander Baan and Larry Barcheski and their crew of workers.

HOMECOMING

One of the greatest seasons in the history of Catholic Central football was culminated by the annual Homecoming Dance held in the Black and Silver Room of the Civic Auditorium on Nov. 12. Ray Sabin created a soft atmosphere for an evening of dancing.

The huge crowd of students and alumni was greeted by Rt. Rev. Msgr. Murphy at the opening of the fun filled intermission after which the Four Counts and D. Kowalczyk and Co. headed the entertainers. Introduction of the royal court and the coronation of Queen Mary Lynn Hormuth and King Kevin Hanrahan highlighted a very successful evening, one which will be cherished forever in the memories of all who attended.

Fantasyland came to life on the night of December tenth, as the friends, faculty, and students enjoyed the annual Gala Night presented by the class of '56. Much of the success was due to the hard work and cooperation of all, but mainly to that of Fr. John Noidowski and co-chairmen, Martha Kaminski and Jerry Sieracki. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the royalties, Nancy Schmuker and Walter Stein, together with the prince and princess of West Side. The Gala Night of '56 ended as one of the greatest events, financially as well as socially, in the history of C. C.

RETREAT

The annual retreat was held under the guidance of the Reverend James Cake S.J., spiritual Director at Holy Cross Seminary, LaCrosse, Wisconsin. In stressing loyalty to God, he impressed upon the hearts and minds of each the qualities that Catholic teen-agers should possess. Through this retreat the students found Christ waiting for them in the tabernacle with confirming strength and consoling assurance that they are on the road He has assigned them, advancing in success and sanctity.

Cougars Successful

Blessed with size, speed, savvy, and spirit, the 1955 Catholic Central Cougars took to the gridiron at Buckley Stadium, August 29th, to prepare for the season opener with Flint Northern.

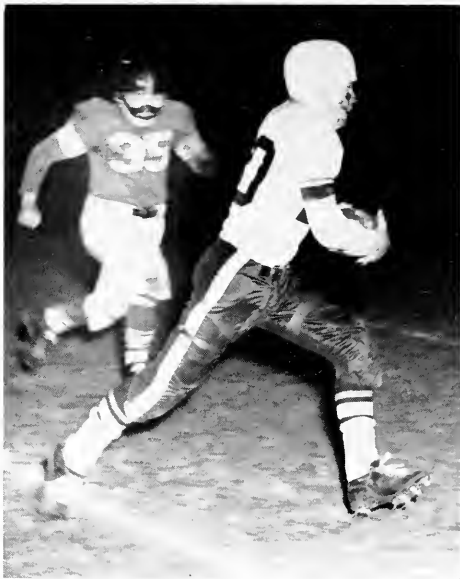

After three weeks of strenuous practice the Cougars traveled to Flint to take on the dangerous Vikings of Northern High. The Cougars struck early in the game by sweeping to 13 to 0 half time lead via Walt Stein's two touchdowns. Flint Northern's depth told the story in the second half as they knotted the score 13 to 13, and the exhausted Cougars had to go home contented with a tie.

On the three succeeding weekends, the Cougars struck with second half fury to roll to impressive victories over Central: 36 to 12; Creston: 32 to 6; and Ottawa: 32 to 13. Catholic's passing combination, Miller to Sauer, aided a crushing ground attack which proved unstoppable.

Cougars Travel

The Catholic Cougars invaded Saginaw's beautiful Arthur Hill Memorial Stadium to knock heads with the rough and tough Lumberjacks. Catholic exploded early in the game with Denny Cook's 95 yard runback of the opening kickoff for a touchdown. This stunned the Hillites and the Cougars rolled to an impressive 29 to 7 win.

Big Ed Moves in

Bruising Ground Attack

Detroit Catholic Central retreated back to the big city after suffering a 26 to 7 loss at the hands of our ever alert Cougars. The broken-field running of Walter Stein and Jerry Caurterier was outstanding along with superior defensive playing.

The Cougar's claws were sharper than the talons of the Red Hawks as the Sheldonites shellacked the West Siders, 48 to 7. Union learned that you can't kill a Cougar with a B-B gun as the Catholices, along with tremendous school spirit, could not stop rolling.

City Champs

With the City title at stake, the Cougars, capitalizing on Trojan errors, ramped to a 32 to 0 lead at half time and played on even terms with the Trojans in the second half and walked off the field with a 32 to 0 victory and the City Championship.

Eighteen seniors said farewell to Catholic Central football as the Cougars climaxed a brilliant season by outscoring the Crusaders from Muskegon Catholic Central 20-7 in the annual Homecoming game. The Cougars marched for three touchdowns in the first half to hold a 20-0 margin. The Crusaders fought back in the second half and outplayed the Cougars.

Catholic Central thus finished the season with a record of nine wins and a tie. Catholic captured its fourth City title in the last five years. When the state rankings were completed, the Cougars were rated second behind Ann Arbor.

Too many Detraiters for Courterier

Co-captains Denny Cook and Fred Sauer were named on the All-State team. Cook packed the punch and power to make him one of the most feared full-backs in the state. Big Fred's devastating blocking and sensational pass catching marked him as a top end.

The Cougars demonstrated a power attack with speed afoot in the backfield. Coaches Ted Sowle and Joe Godleski fielded an eleven that was vastly superior to its opponents in every department. They have now returned to their den awaiting the up-and-coming 1956 football season.

GOLDEN TOE

A special feature of the Catholic Central football team was the timely point kicking of Jim Augustyn. Dubbed "Golden Toe", because of his superior kicking ability, Jim booted 22 P.A.T.'s and also made 2 field goals of 28 and 20 yards against Grand Rapids Central and Saginaw Arthur Hill respectively, a feat rarely executed in high school football. His kicking skill was attained only through long hours of tedious practice at Buckley Stadium. And so the Spires' Sport Staff would like to commend Jim "Golden Toe" Augustyn for his superb work.

CROSS COUNTRY

FRANK GEARY

Chuck Griffin leads in South Meet.

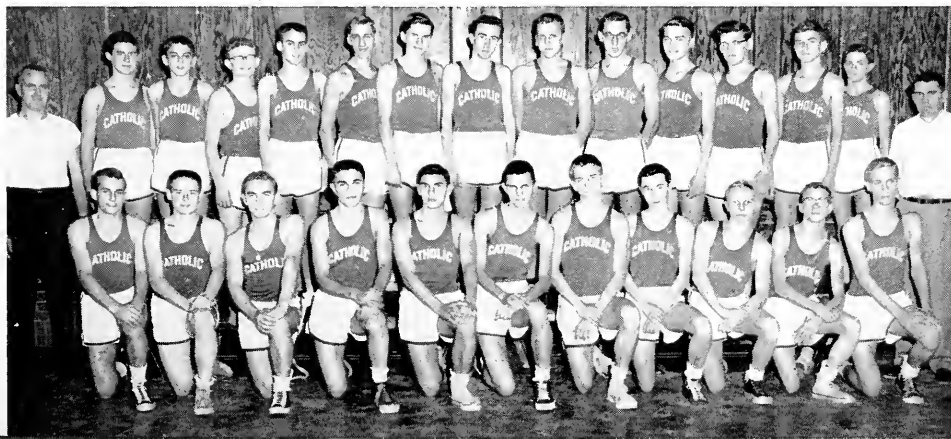

Under a plan of Athletic Director Ted Sowle, Coach Frank Geary molded together a cross country team composed almost exclusively of underclassmen, to produce powerful harrier teams characteristic of Catholic Central in former years. The youthful harriers gained only two triumphs and lost five, all by narrow margins. The Cougars had tremendous team balance.

Chuck Griffin led the Crosscountry team in every run. He was usually followed closely by Dick Gregory, Fred Groendyk, and Mike Milanowski, who were also outstanding in the meets. These four, all underclassmen, can be counted on for the next two Harrier seasons. Catholic Central will be a power to reckon with in Crosscountry for years to come.

11-5 Record

Cagers Impressive

For many years Basketball has been the weak sister in a strong Catholic Central athletic program. This year was different. A Cougar hardwood aggregation made one of the best showings of any Cougar cage team in recent years.

The big shadow on the brilliance of the season was the tournament loss to Christian 46-45. The Eagles used some last minute heroics to stage the upset.

Catholic dropped its first game of the season to depth laden Flint Northern, 67-53. Coach Don Lennon's cagers played an even terms with the Vikings in the first half but fell prey to a swift striking attack in the late stages of the game. Art Champion meshed 22 points.

The quintet opened its City League season with a 74-63 come-back triumph over Union's Red Hawks. Paced by Champion's 31 point spurge, the blue and white overcame a 15 point deficit to win.

South surprised the overconfident Cougars 70-52 to hand the Sheldon Avenue boys their first City reversal. But Catholic returned to form and edged Muskegon C.C. 82-80 on Champion's last second charity tosses.

After routing Creston 55-35, Lennon's squad edged Ottawa 68-67 in overtime. Catholic trailed by eleven with only three minutes left. Then they narrowed the count to 61-59 with 7 seconds remaining. On the ensuing tip, Jack Kirkwood batted the ball to Champion, who was racing toward the bucket, and Art dropped it in. The Cougars won in overtime period.

Win Streak

The Cougars then ran their winning streak to six straight by beating Central 54-46, Christian 78-67, and Union 73-48. In the Christian game Kirkwood meshed 32 points and Champion added 26 markers.

The Blue and White, with a 6-1 City League record, met the undefeated Trojans of South with first place at stake. The Trojans always managed to keep a point or two ahead and when the final buzzer sounded, South had won 61-57.

The Cougars then traveled to Muskegon to face the Crusaders. After trailing in the first stanza, C.C. put on a tremendous spurt to rout the Muskegonites 84-55. The Parochials whipped Creston 52-44 in a game played at the Civic Auditorium.

Catholic last possession of undisputed second place when Ottawa's Indians upset the Cougars 61-56. C.C. finished the regular season by beating Central and Christian.

Thus the Cougars completed the season with a 11-5 record and finished in a second place tie with the Indians having a 9-3 City mark.

More stature was added to the season when Champion was named All-City and 2nd All-State. The 6 ft. 2 in. senior tallied 309 points in season play. Kirkwood was named to 2nd team All-City.

"The best reserve team I've ever coached," is the statement Coach Joe Godleski made about this year's Sophomore team. Compiling one of the best reserve records in Cougar basketball history, the young Cougars posted 12-3 overall mark and won the City Reserve Title with a 10-2 record. Jerry Barto, a high scoring center, led the team in individual offense.

Freshman Team

Paced by the shorps shooting guard Tim Barager, Catholic's Freshman cagers gained a 5-2 record this season. The quintet played well together and finished in second place. Besides Borager, John Bougie, Garry Gahan, Chuck Collins, and Tim Denniss played regularly during the season. Cooch Jules Sommer's young Cougars lost both of the decisions to South's ninth grade team. The team showed promise for successful hordwood seasons to come.

BASEBALL

"Joe Godleski has turned out another winner" is the statement being made, as the critical eye passes over the Catholic Central baseball team. With a veteran lineup returning, the Cougars have a good chance of taking another championship. Veteran righthander Bruce Spielmaker heads the mound staff with capable Denny Cook behind the plate. Juniors Chuck Kerjes and Pat Jackman will also see considerable action on the hill.

Students find it beneficial to spend quiet moments in the chapel between classes.

Chapel

In the quiet atmosphere of the chapel students are comforted by a visit with our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. Every student has an opportunity to confess any hour throughout the day. Every Friday morning the extraordinary quiet in the ground floor corridor is explained by this little sign: "Silence, Mass is now being offered." Catholic Central students are grateful for the opportunities bestowed on them by the presence of the chapel and the warm and comfortable feeling they gain by spending time with God!

Marian Club

The Marian Club, under the capable guidance of Sister Mary Edwin O.P., with the assistance of its officers, proposes to increase devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary. The members attend Holy Mass daily, receive the Sacraments frequently, and carry the rosary at all times. They take an active interest in school activities, and in the spiritual welfare of the students. Among its many activities, the Modesty Show and the Marian Tea were outstanding. The annual May Crowning provided a grand climax in which all the members participated.

Future Teachers

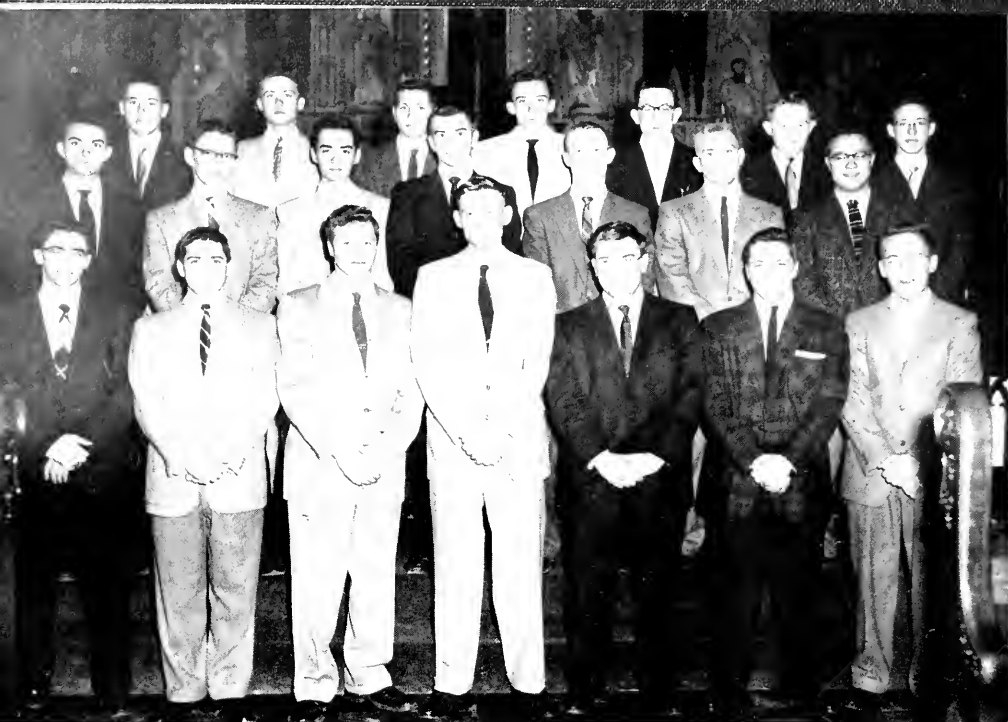

The newest addition to C. C.'s clubs is the Future Teachers. Formed in October, 1955, the members chose Sister M. Bernetto, Director of Teacher Education, Aquinas College, as their counselor and under her guidance have strived to become better prepared to face the problems they will meet as teachers of tomorrow.

Future Nurses

The Future Nurses Club is another club dedicated to vocations for girls. To provide an insight into the field of nursing is the aim of this club led by President Catherine McEvoy, Vice-President Sally Kampfschulte, Secretary Judy Morgan and Treasurer Judy Stapleton. The agenda of its activities includes a tour of St. Mary's hospital and the state hospital at Kalamazoo.

Ushers

Under the auspices of Sister Mary Damien O.P. the Ushers Club completes another meritorious year. The purpose of this club is to arrange for the orderly convening of the students at the various ceremonies and assemblies during the school year. The young men also usher at numerous other activities. The training acquired in this club cultivates poise, courtesy, and alertness in its members.

Presidents Club

This organization, made up of all the presidents of the various clubs, has completed its second successful year. The purpose of this club is to plan a schedule of the various activities of the clubs and to discuss their problems and successes. It is under the supervision of the senior class officers and a few members of the faculty who act as their advisors.

President T. Hanna asks members of the Presidents Club to suggest a way to increase school spirit of the various sport events.

Library Club

Under the guidance and contributive hands of C. C.'s competent Librarians, Sister Rose Carlita O. P. and Sister Rose Imelde O. P., the Library Club, consisting of members of grades nine through twelve, assist the students by keeping the books repaired and labeled. They also check out books and maintain order in the quiet atmosphere of the library.

Writers Club

A small group of very hard working students have been given the task of high-lighting the important events and every-day happenings at C. C. for the Youth Parade. Their most important job is to devise the theme and write the script for Class Night. The advisor of the club is Reverend Joseph Murphy.

Blue and White

It is the purpose of this group of students to edit and present to the student body the school newspaper, the Blue and White. This years editors were Mary Baggiana and Jack Kirkwood. Assisting them was a fine news staff. The experience acquired by these students gave them a phase of the work required to make a good newspaper. Their timely articles, and accurate coverage of school events were the best possible for the young journalists of tomorrow.

Part of the staff looking over the finished product are P. Misner, S. Urbonski, P. Dzierwa, T. Borber, L. Barcheski, V. John, J. DeVries, J. Stopelton, and E. Kunst.

Senior Advisors to Underclassmen: P. Dzierwa, L. Nartan, J. Lee, J. Augustyn, C. Radawski, T. Borber.

Student Council Officers: M. Dennis, J. Kailunas, F. Kegelmeyer, J. DeVries, P. Misner.

Student Council

Under the able direction of Reverend John Najdowski, the Student Council helped to maintain order in the halls at all times, to minimize the congestion that normally accompanies the changing of classes.

Each student councilor was assigned to a specific post each quarter, where his duties included running errands, meeting guests, and issuing penalties.

The cooperation given by all members of this organization helped to maintain a well organized Catholic Central.

Student Councilor P. Keller checks up four Seniors roaming through the halls without passes. Seated: P. Keller. Standing: T. Kampfischulte, R. Hamacher, M. Grasiński, C. Boyland.

J. Borta, (standing at right) records the presence of V. Milita (seated) and A. Vitale (standing) as being present at the assigned post at the proper time.

Looking over material for a panel discussion on French Art and Architecture are the club officers V. Griffith, J. Baar, M. Dautremont, and W. Kachanek.

Spanish Club

This club is made up of students particularly interested in the customs and history of the Spanish people. Under the supervision of Sr. Agnes Therese, O. P., the club presented various skits and held panel discussions, which made their work interesting and enlightening. The big event of this club was their Christmas Party, in which an old Spanish custom, the breaking of the Pinata was celebrated.

Discussing plans for the Latin Banquet are: Standing; J. Brown, J. Barto, J. Westdorp, P. Varano, M. Taylor, G. Patter. Seated; S. Baldwin and M. Kob.

French Club

The French Club, under the direction of Sr. Leo Marie, O. P., has a twofold purpose, the spreading of devotion to Our Lady and the carrying on of classes and programs entirely in French. The members dedicate their work and themselves to Our Lady of Natre Dame. Through their work they learn many things about the French people and their land. The big event of this club was the participation in the National French Examination.

Showing how the Spanish children celebrate Christmas by breaking the Pinata are R. De Young and J. Wittkowski, while other club members sing an old Spanish Christmas hymn. Far left: B. De Koster, J. Kennedy, M. Racine, J. Miele. R. De Young (blindfolded), J. Wittkowski, E. Castro, L. Steffens, M. Gavin, M. Witzak, R. Salkowski, P. Mieras, M. Vargas, P. Weny, S. Jarmol. Absent: R. Lappi, S. Arnold.

Latin Club

The Latin club, organized under the direction of Sister Mary Michael O.P., maintains the purpose of studying the customs of the ancients and their classic works. The club held its annual banquet in the school cafeteria and all who attended were garbed in Roman costumes. Also the club sponsors the annual Latin Week in which the highlight is the writing of the national Latin contest. The consuls are M. Kob and S. Baldwin.

Handmaids of Mary

This club is composed of three units, all girls, from the Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior classes respectively. They make rosaries, cover Sacred Heart and Mother of Confidence badges, sew scapulars, collect cancelled stamps, and procure other articles to send to missions as nearby as Ionia and as far-away as Pakistan, India. They attend Holy Mass and receive Holy Communion one day a week especially for the missions. As members of the Living Rosary they recite the beads daily.

Missing from the picture are: K. Driza, J. Pulte.

Senior Council

This group of students acted as the governing body of the senior class until the election of the class officers. These 16 students planned all senior sponsored activities, and drew up a social calendar for underclassmen activities. The club was headed by the co-presidents, T. Hanna and D. Argile and their alternates, T. Barber and C. Radawski, and supervised by Rev. James Yager.

Senior Glee Club

The Senior Glee Club, under the direction of Sister Ann Marie O. P., finishes another excellent year. The many activities of the club included: singing at various ceremonies in the Cathedral, and singing hymns at the Senior Christmas Party. The highlight of the year was their presentation of Stephen Foster songs in the Senior Play, "Love is Eternal". The closing presentation of the club was their singing at the closing of the Class day exercises.

Varsity Club

When we see these boys proudly displaying their sweaters we never stop to think of the hard work and hours of free time they spend to bring victories and glory to C.C. This select group strives to keep good sportsmanship and school spirit in all of Catholic Central's athletic engagements. The boys try to make their school stay on top in Michigan Athletics.

The Cheerleaders

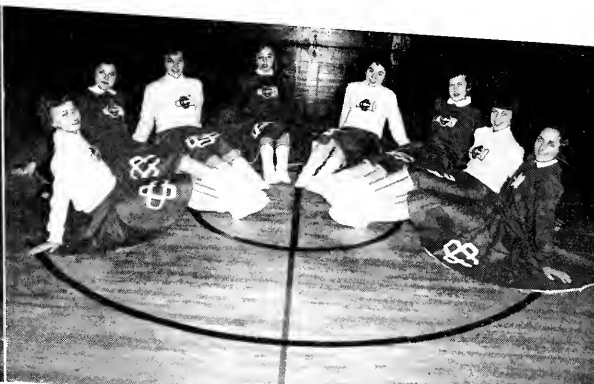

Go team, fight team, win team! The enthusiasm of these vivacious cheerleaders was contagious at all sports events of the year. With the spontaneous cooperation of the student body, these morale boosters deserve a hand for their part in leading C.C. teams to victory.

This year's Catholic Central Band, under the direction of Mr. Herman Johnson, is the largest in the school's history. These young musicians played at our football games, basketball games, and marched in various city parades. The main event for the band is their annual concert, held in the Spring. Leading the marching band are the drum major, Tom Winstrom, and the majorettes, Charlene Ohren, Carol Gyure, Emily Manning, Nancy Folkersma, and Ann Van Drunen. C. C. can be proud of the fine representation given by these students.

TE

have attracted an ever larger number of youths to seek Catholic Secondary Education

The enrollment of over two hundred fifty youths in September 1906 outnumbered expectations, and it has continued to climb higher each year despite the crowded conditions and inadequate facilities that necessarily prevailed for a period of time.

What was the attraction? Here was a school that dared to place moral values and spiritual perfection in Christ above social prestige, physical fitness, and economic stability without impairing the proper development of social, physical, and economic assets. Here was a well rounded curriculum recognized by the state and higher accrediting agencies. Here were spiritual advantages: opportunities for frequent reception of the sacraments, of hearing Holy Mass, of receiving daily religious instructions, and of making the annual retreat. Here was that mutual understanding based on a common faith that rejoiced with one in success and grieved with one in sorrow. Here religious men and women taught and guided, not for worldly gain, but in obedience to the Divine command: "Go forth and teach."

These are the blessings that forty-nine graduating classes appreciated and longed to share with their children. This is the fruit of their loyalty to the ideals of Catholic Central. These are the blessings that drew over two thousand youths to seek secondary education in her halls in 1955-1956. God bless the Alumni!

The Junior Council

The Juniors of today are C.C.'s leaders of tomorrow. On them will rest the troubles, sorrows, joys, and exciting experiences of the "one and only" senior year.

The Council itself consists of sixteen members, two chosen from each home room. As a body they are cooperative, willing, and exceptionally clever.

The primary purpose of the Council is to govern the Class of '57 as Juniors, and to bring forth the leadership needed to guide them through a successful Senior year.

The advisors, Caroline Radowski and Tam Barber, commend them for the splendid spirit of cooperation displayed on all occasions.

The Sophomore Council

The Sophomore Class through the leadership of its council showed praiseworthy ability to plan, direct, and conduct several creditable activities. The "Cake Walk Booth" of Gala Nite was a great success financially and socially; and brought in clear relief the class's generosity and self-reliance. At the Sophomore Mixer, both the arrangement and the entertainment presented point to a promising future for this class.

The Council has other, but less glamorous duties, such as supervising conduct in the cafeteria, keeping order in the halls, and encouraging a spirit of cooperation in all group activities. Senior advisors to this group are Judy Lee and James Augustyn.

B. Priest and Sandy Angel present a dance number at the Sophomore Mixer. This is one of the activities sponsored by the Sophomore Council.

The Freshman Council

The Freshman Council, a part of the council system which was inaugurated this year has developed a spirit of harmony and given an opportunity for representation among the ninth grade students. The Council is composed of two representative students from each home room. It is the duty of these councilors to lead their particular home room in all activities and to supervise the care and maintenance of order and cleanliness in the cafeteria during the lunch period assigned them.

The Council's main activity in this their first year of organization was the "Twelfth Night Party" in January. This council handled the organization of the various committees, and cooperated with them to plan and produce their first big project and make it a wonderful success.

Sister Mary Rose, O.P., Faculty Adviser, assisted by the other members of the Freshman teaching staff, and the Senior Advisors, Patricia Dzierwa and Larry Norton, have been an invaluable aid to the stable organization of this Council.

Home Maker of Tomorrow

Elizabeth Kunst, Michigan Homemaker of Tomorrow with her advisor, Sister M. Rosalina, are proudly admiring a set of Encyclopedia Britannica which was awarded the Catholic Central library upon Elizabeth's winning the Betty Crocker Homemaker Contest. Along with the Encyclopedia she and her advisor received an all expense paid trip to Washington, D. C. In addition, Elizabeth is the proud recipient of a $1500 scholarship to the college of her choice.

BLESSING OF NEW BAND ROOM

The latest addition to C. C. Campus is the Band Building — a cinder block unit, set apart from the other buildings. Such a structure was in the dream stage for years and finally was made possible through proceeds from Gala-Nite and the careful planning of Rt. Rev. Monsignor Murphy, who blessed it April 19. In this new building the band members may "toot their horns" freely without feeling that they are disturbing classes, as was the case previously when band practice was held in one of the ground floor class rooms.

Rt. Rev. Monsignor Murphy takes up the baton from Mr. Herman Johnson and conducts the band.

Rt. Rev. Monsignor Murphy explains to the band members the meaning of the blessing.

Acknowledgments

Behind the walls of the Spires room, where for past months confusion and excitement reigned, an almost solemn silence prevails. Tables are no longer strewn with half-finished copy and layouts. The humming typewriter has been silenced by lack of work to be done. Yes, the "Golden Anniversary" Spires has gone to press.

We, the editors, wish to thank all those who put in the long hours of toil needed to complete this book. We are deeply indebted to the untiring Spires Staff, to our able and patient advisor, Sr. Lucy Marie, O. P., to Mr. Alvin Burkle and Mr. Webb Van Dyke of the Dean-Hicks Company, for their helpful suggestions and gracious assistance; and to Mr. Henry Werkema and Mrs. Bert Bos of Versluis Studios for their cheerful co-operation.

We sincerely hope that this "Golden Anniversary" Spires will hold many memories for the seniors of 1956. If it does, our task has been rewarded.

Dear Gigi,
Well there goes another year, but this time it has flown smoothly (putty much). We have accomplished a lot too I would say. This year really has been swell and I can just imagine how great our Senior year will be.

Fishing? no I think your hook is in someone and I truly hope it stays there. I guess I have my hook someplace too. But we cannot be too sure of things. Really if anyone deserves a "fish" like that one you do. Maybe you think that I am just saying this. I mean every word I am saying. In a place like this I cannot goof.

If you ever get a chance, like the one you had - you know what I mean - take it. It is a hard decision, but when you really get down to the bottom, that is the only solution.

I hope this summer doesn't go waste like the others have, hope we get a lot together to do things ???

Senior year! what does it hold for us? Anything it does, let's make it a hit.

Not ziggity boom - bad yadda brrrrr what's gonna done to me.

your friend always,
Lidija "5-7"
